

SWEETHEART PLASTICS WILL DOUBLE IN SIZE

Sweetheart Plastics, of Guildware Park, Wilmington, has announced that a new 100,000 square foot warehouse is to be added to their plant.

The new building, which is to be located adjacent to, and in the back of the present building, will just about double the size of the multi-million dollar Wilmington company plant. The company is located just off Burlington Avenue, and adjacent to the Boston-Nashua division of the Boston & Maine Railroad.

Concrete foundations have been poured, and the steel for the framework of the new structure is expected within the week. It is planned to have the new warehouse in operation sometime in late winter.

Formed by Samuel Shapiro of Swampscott in 1957, the company is a direct descendant of a small company called the South West Cone Co., which was formed in Chelsea in 1911 by four brothers, Nathan, Joseph, Samuel and Isaac Shapiro.

Nathan is still with the company, and it is his son Samuel who heads Sweetheart, as its president. The firm moved to Wilmington in 1962 onto a twenty acre plot of land which has since been named Guildware Park.

The stock of the firm has been listed in the American Stock Exchange since 1961, and is to be listed in the New York Stock Exchange in August of this year.

Sweetheart is engaged in the manufacturing of ice cream cones, paper cups, and disposable plastic containers. It is entirely self contained in Wilmington, having manufacturing, engineering, research and development facilities all under one roof. There are about 200 salesmen employed by the firm in a world-wide sales organization, and there are four foreign affiliates in Japan, Canada, England and Italy.

Director of Marketing for Sweetheart is Harold Plotkin of Marblehead; George Shumrak of Natick is Vice President/General Manager; Joe McDonald of Lexington is Vice President/Engineering; Norman Brownlie of Andover is Director of Sales, and Richard Tufenkjian of Cambridge is Director of Community Relations and Personnel.

When the firm moved to Wilmington from Cambridge it brought most of its employees with it. A majority of the employees of the firm today live in or near Wilmington.

Planning Board

Evans is not a member!

The long standing problem of whether or not Bob Evans is a member of the Planning Board has been solved, by a letter from Town Counsel Philip Buzzell to Danny Gillis, Secretary of the Planning Board. Buzzell says that Evans is not a member.

The letter was read at the Planning Board meeting Tuesday night. It read:

July 16, 1965

Dear Mr. Gillis:

I have your letter of July 6 with which you enclosed copies of Mr. Bouchard's appointment of Mrs. McKie to the Planning Board, of his letter to Bob Evans advising him that he was not going to reappoint him when his term expires on June 15, 1965, and of Bob's appointment to the Board by Mr. Lancaster for 'Five years, expiration date 6/15/65'.

It is quite apparent from the first two papers above mentioned that Mr. Bouchard's appointment of Mrs. McKie was not intended to take effect until Bob's term expired by its own limitation, namely on June 15, 1965. Since Mr. Bouchard's tenure and authority as manager had ceased before that date, it is my opinion that the appointment of Mrs. McKie was not legally effective.

The more difficult question is as to whether Bob would have any holdover status as a member of the board after his stated term had expired, in view of the fact that no valid appointment of a replacement had been made. I have found no direct authority on this question in Massachusetts. In the cases of MacBrayne v. City Council of Lowell, 241 Mass 380, and Attorney General v. Loomis, 225 Mass 372, both of which touch on the question, there were express charter or statutory provisions to the effect that the officer in question should serve till his successor was appointed or elected. The Loomis case involved the office of city clerk, and G. L. Chap. 41, Sec. 12, expressly provides that a clerk shall serve until the qualification of his successor. I have found no similar provisions of statute applying to town offices generally, and if there were such a general provision it would seem there would have been no necessity for the specified provision as to city clerks.

While the question is not free from doubt, I think it safer to assume that a vacancy now exists on the board, which should be filled by a new appointment. I would suggest that the new appointment be for a term of five years from June 15, 1965.

Yours very truly
/s/ Philip B Buzzell

FOURTH NEW TRUCK IN 38 YEARS: For the Water Department was accepted Tuesday by Temporary Town Manager Bob Peters from Rudy Rotolo of Wilmington Ford. Peters ordered the truck, which had been turned down by the previous town manager.

Midge went back

'Midge' Reardon Wescott has returned to her Marion Street home, after a two week visit in Pennsylvania, where, a year ago last September she so nearly lost her life in an airplane accident.

She and her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Reardon, and sisters Nancy and Mary made the trip, and Midge drove all the way to and from Fayetteville, where they were the guests of the Rev. and Mrs. George Mowers.

Their friends in Chambersburg, where Midge spent many months recovering from the accident, were thrilled at the amazing progress Midge is making, in recovery.

Midge says it is wonderful to be able to drive a car again, and to walk without crutches.

She is scheduled for her 13th operation in September, which will include work on the left leg-heel cord stretch. She is not only walking without crutches, and driving a car, but also does typing for the church, in spite of the limited use of her left hand.

Tradesmen are on top

During the past week the Tradesmen have had one tie, with Reading and five wins, over Lexington (2), Malden, N. Cambridge and Medford. This brings the Tradesmen's winning streak up to nine games, plus one tie.

They are currently leading the Carling League, being two games ahead of Reading and Waltham, the two leading competitors.

Tuesday, in North Cambridge, at Rindge Field, the team defeated the N. Cambridge team, 5-2, behind the pitching of Ritchie Robinson, who struck out 10 in six innings.

Last night the team defeated Medford, in a 12-0 game. Frank Callahan and Jeff Williamson split the pitching honors.

The big game of the coming week will be on Friday night, at the High School field, against North Cambridge. Either Paul Wennick or Kevin Field is slated to pitch.

After Friday's game the Tradesmen are to take off for a weekend at Ellsworth Maine, where they will be playing the LeMoine AC. A game is to be played on Saturday and another on Sunday afternoon.

INCINERATOR IN WILMINGTON?

A story in yesterday afternoon's Boston Globe, signed by reporter William S. Workman, states that the Middlesex County officials are seeking to locate a 'joint incinerator' in Middlesex County.

The story further reported that 'Burlington, Wilmington and Tewksbury officials have already shown an interest'.

This is contrary to the known facts. There have been out of town persons who made such a proposal to the Selectmen. The Selectmen, some months ago, listened courteously, but were not interested.

There is no public record of any Wilmington official having 'shown an interest'.

THE FIRST LOAD OF CONCRETE: Was poured a couple of weeks ago, at Sweetheart Plastics, for the new building which the firm is announcing today.

This picture was taken of a few who watched, and were waiting for the truck - it got stuck in the sand!

The picture below shows how the problem of getting the concrete poured was finally solved.

Henry Park celebrated his 86th

Henry M. Park of High Street celebrated his 86th birthday in the company of his sister Miss Ethyl Park, Salem Street, Reading, who was celebrating her 80th birthday. The celebration with 36 relatives, children and adults, took place last Saturday at the Grafton, N.H. farm belonging to his son and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Philip S. Park. Following the family picnic party, they visited the Ruggles Mine in Grafton, the first mica mine in the country. The old mine, though not in actual operation, has been restored as a tourist attraction.

The Park farm is located at the foot of Mt. Kearsage at the dividing range between Caanan and White River Junction and consists of 60 acres of land, farm house, which Mrs. Parks says is their 'fun' house, and a trout stream. She told of the amazing work done by a colony of beavers. The beavers had constructed a dam 80 feet long, 6 feet high, and 4 feet deep, entirely from sticks, logs, and mud. They felled a birch tree 10 inches in diameter and chewed it into 30 inch lengths. Most amazing was the skid way the animals had constructed to facilitate their dam construction work.

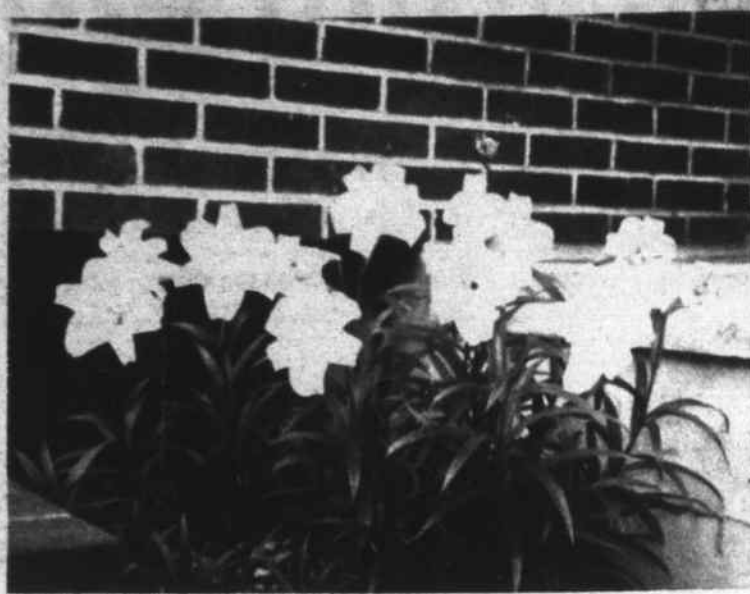

THE SUIT: It just sort of hangs. James Miceli, a year ago, had his picture in the Town Crier, when as a Jaycee he presented awards to the Rev. Terry Clay Thomason and the Rev. Paul Berube.

Mr. Miceli had the distinction of being one of the fattest persons ever to have his picture in the Town Crier. He was tipping the scales at about 250 pounds.

Today he weighs 187 pounds, and is losing two pounds a week, on a diet prescribed by Dr. MacDougal, and which allows him only 900 calories a day.

Miceli says his goal is to get to weigh only 160 pounds.

Jeff Williamson story (with headlines) in Monday's Boston Globe

If you're going to borrow a pitcher, you might as well get one who will throw a no-hitter.

Burlington Sports Coach Will Zinser of the Mass Conference League, borrowed pitcher Jeff Williamson from the Wilmington Tradesmen of the Carling League.

And Sunday afternoon, Williamson pitched a 4-1 no-hit victory over the Checker Club at Commercial Street Playground, North End. 'Our manager, Mr. (Jim) Tighe let me pitch for the Sports, because I had been having some trouble with my curve ball,' said Williamson, who as a sophomore standout for Springfield College hurled a shutout over Boston College.

'It wasn't breaking sharp before, but today the batters were jumping out of the box and the ball was breaking right over the plate,' explained the right-handed fastballer.

Williamson who hadn't pitched a no-hitter since playing Pony League ball, was never in trouble throughout the seven-inning contest. He fanned 17 and didn't allow a ball to be hit out of the infield, while facing 22 men.

A physical education major at Springfield, Williamson did a little experimenting during Sunday's win. 'I didn't bring my left leg as far back as I normally do during my windup. It gave me much better balance and increased my momentum toward the plate.'

The Checker Club scored in the third inning after Williamson had fanned the first eight batters. He walked a batter - one of two walks - who stole second and scored when the catcher's throw went through the legs of the centerfielder.

Zinser, player-coach of the Sports, who drove in the lead run, was full of praise for the borrowed ace.

'I got him last Saturday, too, and he struck out 17. He beat the Roxbury All-Stars, 7-1', said Zinser, who obviously was happy.

Henneberger seeks Wilmington home

Newly appointed TM Richard Henneberger, of Markham, Illinois has written a letter to the Board of Selectmen saying that he seeks to purchase a home in Wilmington which will be ready for occupancy about August fifteenth.

Mr. Henneberger has listed as qualifications, for the house he seeks, an older house, in the vicinity of $15,000, or a newer one for which he will go higher. He needs three bedrooms, and has a preference for a two car garage. He would possibly consider a lease for an indefinite time.

Henneberger is requesting that anyone having information of a suitable home send him a picture at 16328 South Sawyer, Markham Illinois 60428.

Henneberger has also requested information on colleges within a 15 mile radius of Wilmington. Mrs. Henneberger has been attending college in Markham, and wishes to continue her studies.

50 tickets for kids

50 Wilmington youngsters are to see the Red Sox-Baltimore game on August 12th.

The game will be at Fenway Park, in Boston.

President Barney McMahon of the Rotary Club announced yesterday that the tickets had been given to the club, through the courtesy of Rep. Fred F. Cain.

The tickets, at the present time, are in charge of Henry Porter, Youth Chairman of Rotary.

No rules have been announced as to who will get the tickets, but only boys under 15 years of age will be eligible. It may become a case of First Come, First Serve!

TOWN NOTES

Rainfall

There was only .53 inch, in that rainfall of last weekend. In other parts of Massachusetts there was more, with a couple of places on the South Shore reporting about 2 inches - but not in Wilmington.

The rain was enough to help, if you have been watering your lawn and/or garden regularly, but for land that has not been watered it merely stopped the dust for a while.

The Water Department has been averaging almost 3,000,000 gallons a day, ever since the first of June. The best record for their water pumping this year was on July 15 when they pumped 3,961,000 gallons which doesn't quite come up to the record of 4,000,000 gallons pumped on one day last summer.

Be Prepared

Be Prepared is, of course, the Boy Scout motto, and the Town Crier doesn't have any idea of whether or not the hero of this little tale was or is a Boy Scout.

But Dickie Gillis of Federal St. is a boy who wants to be prepared for all the coming sports events.

The coming sport, now, is foot ball. Practice is due to start in five or six weeks, or maybe a couple of months.

But there is nothing like being prepared, so Dickie was out last week, enjoying a little scrimmage in one of the fields near his home. And he broke his arm. It is now in a cast.

Result: Dickie will not be playing in the Wilmington Little League all-star team, against the all-star teams of other towns.

He was named to be the starting shortstop.

But now he is just another boy who will be sitting on the sidelines.

Ohio Plates

If you saw a good looking (f) with dark glasses, driving a new car around town with Ohio plates, Monday or Tuesday, it was no movie star. It was Edie Traill, of Burt Road. She received a promotion from her company, and included was a new car - which, however was in Ohio. Edie had to go out and get it, and drive it home - which wasn't hard.

But it now has Massachusetts plates - strictly according to law.

Japanese Cherry

The only Japanese Cherry Tree, in Wilmington, to the best of the Town Crier's knowledge, was cut down yesterday.

It stood in front of the old North Wilmington railroad depot, and was one of two planted by the Boston & Maine Railroad, in 1912, when the old station was rebuilt, after a fire.

For years the Town Crier has

The Garden of Eden Country Club

TEEING OFF FOR THE SIXTH HOLE

The Garden of Eden Country Club, where Wilmington Rotary is planning to hold its annual picnic, in August, for the first time, is rapidly becoming one of the better clubs in New England.

It was started half a dozen years ago, on the old Bell Farm, by Millard Pipes. Pipes had one crowning rule, in developing the club - don't get in debt. It's an old New England adage, and it has paid Pipes well. Many Country Clubs go through two or three bankruptcies before they achieve their full status. The Garden of Eden Country Club, by going slowly, has kept solvent all the way.

The name derives from an old name for the area, which is prolific in its growth of trees and plants. The Garden of Eden was the name for the area between Chestnut Street and Wood Hill, in Burlington, many years ago, and when articles about the old Garden of Eden appeared in the Town Crier Pipes knew what the name of the golf club he was planning, was to be.

A new and large club house is being built, overlooking the first tee. The foundations are in, and it is expected that by September one, the first floor will be completed.

Meanwhile, there is an older house, known to many people in Wilmington as the Tarricone house, which is now being used as a club house. It serves the purpose adequately, if not too well.

The Garden of Eden boasts the youngest pro in New England, if not in the United States. 22 year old Dick Curtis of Lynn is a full time Class A Pro, who served five years as assistant Pro at the Unicorn Club in Woburn. He has been on the job since last April.

The greens are in excellent condition, and there are such amenities as horse shoe courts, etc., for those who don't play golf. The Rotary Club should have a fine picnic, on Merchants Day.

ROTARY'S CLAM BAKE MENU

Wilmington, Burlington and Woburn Rotarians, at the clam bake at the Garden of Eden on August 4th will have, on their menu:

Clam chowder with Westminster crackers; Maine clams baked on rocks with seaweed; Drawn butter and clam broth; Whole baked Maine lobster; Potato Chips; Corn on the cob; Crusted rolls; Creamery butter; Watermelon, and Coffee.

The tickets are $5.50 each and are in charge of Fred D Cain and Ray York.

The golf tournament will have competitors from Wilmington, Woburn and Reading.

Testimonial planned for Wavie Drew

A testimonial dinner to honor Mrs. Wavie M. Drew, an outstanding citizen of Wilmington, is being planned by the Republican Town Committee for Saturday evening, October 23rd.

Mrs. Drew, for over a quarter of a century, has been a member of the Republican Committee and has served as chairman for 16 of those years. She is a long standing member of the Board of Selectmen and is the present chair man.

The affair is to be held in the Moose Lodge in North Reading. There will be a social hour from 6 to 7 pm followed by a roast beef dinner. Jack Hennessey's orchestra will provide music. Further information may be obtained by calling 8-4224, or 8-3640.

REV ROBERT SMITH INDUCTED INTO ROTARY

The Rev. Robert Smith, pastor of the First Baptist Church of Wilmington was inducted into the Rotary Club of Wilmington, yesterday Past President Ralph Swanson was the inducting official.

A native of Dorchester, and a graduate of Gordon College (AB) and Gordon Divinity School (BD)

Mr. Smith was formerly the pastor of the Jefferson Maine Baptist Church, before coming to Wilmington two years ago.

There was an exchange of banners with a visitor from Montreal, Roger Chevrier.

Dr. Henry Foster, past president, recently returned from Paris France, brought with him the Rotary Banner of the Paris club, as well as greetings from that club.

Punishments & Rewards?

Planning Board meeting

Referring possibly to the mass changes by past Town Manager Jerry Bouchard, a Planning Board member used the term 'Punishments and Rewards' in the Planning Board meeting, Tuesday night. The term was used in the last part of the meeting, during a discussion of zoning violations.

Barbara Avenue

Barbara Avenue, in N. Wilmington, was the first item discussed Tuesday night. The board was meeting in the cellar of the Town Hall.

The firm of Vokey & Parsons had taken over a portion of the incomplete part of Signore Village, last year. They were to complete Barbara Avenue and Dorothy Avenue, and part of Anthony Avenue, in those portions where no homes had been built. About 10 houselots were involved. The agreement was drawn up by Mr. Honeywell, of the office of Town Counsel Philip Buzzell.

Seemingly overlooked at the time the agreement was drawn up, was that two house lots on Barbara Avenue were a part of an older agreement. The agreement involved $5000 in bonding money, which was spent to improve the streets, in front of the various homes.

None of this was spent for the two lots on which there were no homes.

Tuesday night Brad Parsons of Vokey & Parsons and Atty Fred Corum discussed the case, including the discrepancy.

The town engineer, Alphonse Savignac, told the Planning Board that a good job had been done in putting in the new streets and side walks, but that the entire project was not complete, as originally planned. Another $600 would have to be spent, in the vicinity of the two Barbara Ave houselots.

It was agreed that Atty Fred Corum should discuss the problem with Atty Honeywell, and a report made to the Planning Board.

Stevens Plan

Several weeks ago the board received a plan for some land off Woburn Street, which had been acquired by Robert Stevens of Arlington, a builder. The plan combined several small lots of land into larger ones. The board was in doubt as to the validity of the plan, some of the members felt that the plan constituted a 'sub-division'. A letter was written to the Town Counsel, asking his advice.

The answer was read in Tuesday's meeting. Mr. Buzzell noted that the lots in question were from an old subdivision, that they had had separate owners before the sub-division law went into effect, and that further were on public ways. He advised the board to sign the plan.

Baland Road

A bond of about ten years ago, possibly more, still exists for Baland Road, in N. Wilmington. The bonding company is seeking to resolve any problems that exist so as to terminate the bond.

Town Engineer Savignac told the board that Baland Road does not conform to specifications. He mentioned trees that should be cut 'but the people want them' and said that the 'turn-around' had too short a radius, which might have been caused by the construction of Route 93.

The Planning Board wanted to see the papers, but they were up in the Town Garage. Savignac was told to have them for the next meeting, and Miceli added that 'the Planning Board is getting to be the laughing stock of the town!'

Maple Manor

The board turned down plans for a proposed subdivision off Federal Street, and adjacent to Maple Meadow Brook, called Maple Manor.

The proposed street, the board said, did not conform to subdivision regulations, and the plan did not show adequate drainage.

Future Meetings

The board voted to meet, in the future, on the second and fourth Tuesdays of each month. There will be many other 'work' meetings, which will be entirely devoted to planning sessions, with such persons as Planner Sam Snow of Lexington.

A motion by Jim Banda, when the Town Counsel's letter on Bob Evans was read, to have the board reduced to five members, was not seconded.

Gillis Speaks

A lively discussion was started by Danny Gillis, regarding zoning violations, as the meeting drew to a close.

Referring to a Board of Appeals hearing of the same night, in which John Lucchi had to 'defend' his curbstone planning, Gillis said 'As long as Lucchi is going to get raked over the coals-' and then started off.

He spoke at some length regarding some alleged violations, and in particular about two.

Chairman Rounds wanted to know if the Board had powers of jurisdiction. Gillis said that the Building Inspector is the enforcement officer of the board.

'People call me up and charge that we are playing favorites!'

Rounds: You have a list of 40 violations?

Gillis: I've been burning the midnight oil. I have 43. I am going to discuss a couple of them, every week!

Banda: Good idea, but Andy's (Building Inspector, Ed.) hands are tied. No help. Nobody stands behind him. The guy is left alone. I know it is his job, but his hands are tied.

Gillis: Andy has told us that many times - that he couldn't get the money.

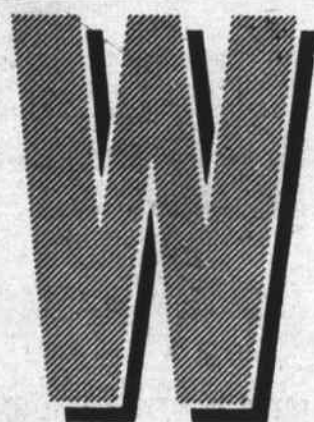

-But when the so-called 'Punishments and Rewards' were handed out three months ago there was suddenly money for Andy to be an assessor!

TWENTY SECOND ANNIVERSARY

Mr. and Mrs. John C. Connelly, Westdale Avenue, celebrated their 22nd wedding anniversary July 17. Their six children, John, Robert, Barbara, Stephen, Neal, and Lorraine (Mrs. Forrest Hewitt of Lowell), were all present at the family gathering. Mrs. Connelly remarked that she is looking forward to at least 50 more such celebrations.

A GROWING COMPANY

In A GROWING TOWN

We came to Wilmington three years ago with the confidence that we were settling in a town where we would be welcome. Our faith has proved to be well placed.

Not only have our relationships with our town government been excellent, but in addition we have had join our company some of the finest people we have ever employed. Through the combined efforts of these people and those who came with us from Cambridge, we have forged dramatically ahead.

So it is with great pleasure that we announce the construction of a 100,000 square foot warehouse, adjacent to our present facility.

And with equally great pleasure we say Thank You to those people of the Wilmington area, who, as members of our company, have created and now form a Successful Sweetheart Team.

SUMMER SCHOOL IN FULL SWING: And these young ladies and gentlemen are stealing a march on their classmates by studying Typing I during the summer vacation.

TRADESMEN NOTES

Wedding bells will be calling the Tradesmen's first baseman, Don McGillicuddy, on August 7th. Don lives in Reading, is going to marry a Reading girl, and is by avocation a teacher in Stoneham High School.

He leads the Tradesmen in stolen bases this year, with 21, according to the team statistician, John Waugh.

Tom Payne has returned from Active Duty, and catcher Norman Heinze now reports to Camp Drum, in New York, for two weeks with the National Guard.

Manager Jim Tighe cannot believe his misfortune that has struck the team this year.

Latest on the injured list are Jimmy Melzar and Connie Barry. Both have leg injuries, preventing them from playing in the last four games.

The pitching has been excellent. The five man staff, which includes Kevin Field, Ritchie Robinson, Jeff Williamson, Paul Wennick, and Frank Callahan have allowed the opposition only 2 1/2 runs per game.

Jim Melzar goes to Pawtucket RI, Monday August 26th for a tryout with Minnesota.

THE REASON WHY: The Wilmington Tradesmen are leading the Carling League, are Jim Melzar, outstanding second baseman, and Kevin Field, with a 6-1 pitching record.

Both boys are former WHS players. Jim is captain of the Boston State team, and Kevin is Northeastern's ace pitcher.

FUNERAL FOR MRS BEATRICE PETERS WILL BE FRIDAY

Mrs Beatrice F Peters, of 325 Burlington Avenue, passed away on July 21st, after a lingering illness. She was the mother of Mrs Joann C Berry, of 325 Burlington Avenue, and grandmother of the five Berry children.

Funeral services are to be held at the William C Cavanaugh and son Funeral Home, 374 Main Street, on Friday, July 23rd, at 2 pm with the Rev. Robert Smith of the Wilmington Baptist Church officiating. Burial will be in the Woodlawn Cemetery, in Everett.

Visting hours, at the Cavanaugh Funeral Home, this evening, are from 7 to 9 pm.

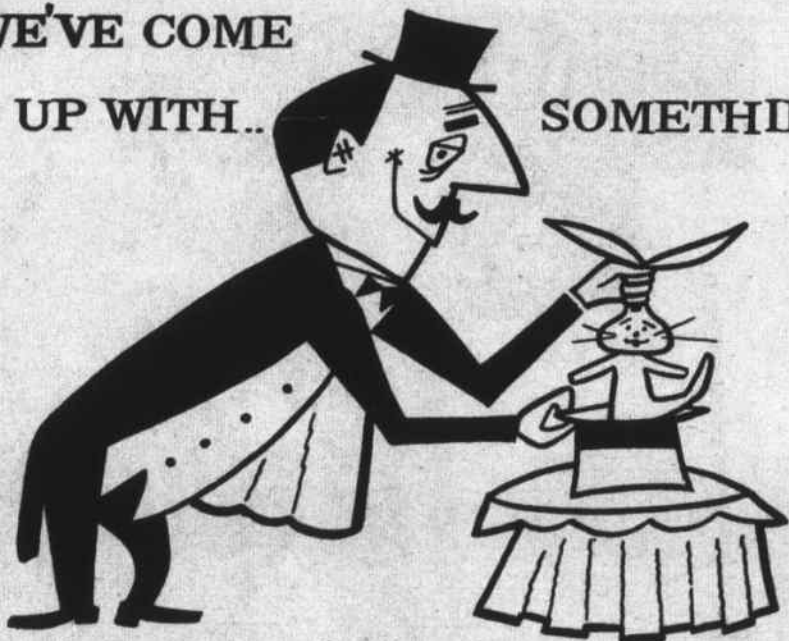

PARK BROTHERS IN VIETNAM

The Park brothers, Alan and David, sons of Mr. and Mrs. Philip S. Park, 267 Ballardvale Street, have been on active duty at Da Nang, Vietnam. Alan is with the Naval Construction Force and has been in Vietnam since May. He will be there for a year. David, a Marine, arrived in Vietnam last December, is now assigned to Okinawa, and expects to be back in the States this August.

Crusaders lead a busy life

NIGHTLY DRILL AT ROTARY PARK

The Wilmington Crusaders are in the height of their field competition, and every evening may be seen in practice down on Rotary Park. The corps is traveling almost every weekend.

In the past six weekends the corps has participated in six parades, and in four competitions. Two other contests were rained out, and are to be rescheduled.

There is a very special emotion connected with a drum corps. It makes the youngsters work hard towards a goal of accomplishment, and there are millions of youngsters in the United States who are active members. It follows that it must be a good activity, if so many adults and youngsters put in so much time and energy.

The Drum and Bugle Corps will take part, on July twenty-eighth, in the Lowell Stadium when they will present the half time entertainment at the Boston Patriots-NY Jets pro football game. The kids feel quite honored, for they are to present, for the first time, their new maneuvering routines. It will be, they are certain, a wonderful show for the audience in the Charity All Star game.

On August First, the Corps will be at Fitchburg, on the third it will take part in the Eastern Mass at Brookline. It will be at Middleboro on the 7th of August, and at Amesbury on the 22nd. The month will end on August 29th at Winchester.

But the big event is to be in Wilmington, on August 8, when the Corps will be hosts to more than a dozen competitors, in a Sponsored Competition, on the High School field. There will be plenty to do on that day!

LeRoy Wallace of Oakridge Circle, and Charles Thibodeau of Shawsheen Avenue, are the co-managers of the Corps, with Wallace having additional duties as treasurer.

Perhaps the hardest worker is Ruth Wallace, who has no title at all. She is the Jack of All Trades, and should be called Corp Mother.

There is a Junior Corps, too, called the Swordsmen, which is a training unit. It practices behind the High School, and in the fall quite a few of those youngsters will be 'promoted' to full-time status with the Crusaders.

PBC Meeting

The pre-meeting discussion of the Permanent Building Committee, Monday night, remarked on how the minutes of the last meeting were much better typed, because Pat's finger is healed. There was a general admiration of the various sun tans, and then Mr Currier remarked that there was a question about a certain corner of the new school, and it appeared that there was a labor shortage at the construction site. Currier said that the Clerk of the Works had said the Construction Co. had to dig deeper than necessary; they said they had to dig deeper because of 'organic soil' - unsuitable for foundations.

The meeting began with the arrival of McClure and Barry. Currier was worried about hydrants at the West Intermediate School. Architect Guarino brought out the plans, and satisfied all enquiries. A letter was read from Guarino to the White Construction Co., complaining that certain changes were made in preliminary construction in four instances without architect's or PBC authorization. Michelson was adamant that no change can be made in construction without the previous consent of the PBC.

Floyd Brown, a Reading Soil Engineer, had checked the soil at the West Intermediate School and found too much peat, which had to be removed. The comments of the various members was that construction was going along rather slowly. Guarino said that once the hole was dug construction will go along on schedule. He is getting prices for bricks, etc.

Mr. Michelson reported on meeting last Wednesday, with Mr. Buzzell, Warner, Guarino, and Mr. Shapiro, attorney for Sewell and Smith. The meeting concerned requests for direct payment of bills outstanding to sub-contractors of the Woburn Street Elementary School. It was agreed, Michelson said, by all parties that the general contractor would obtain for all sub-contractors a final figure of all back payments and would attempt to have all information for the next PBC meeting.

Word had been received, however, from Mr. Shapiro, that it would be impossible to have the figures ready for the July 19th PBC meeting, but that possibly the information would be ready for the following meeting, along with a formula for payment.

The Town Counsel had advised, Michelson said, that in fixing settlements, the payments should be made in full to the sub-contractors and deduct said payments from the Sewell and Smith payment held by the town.

Messrs Emmons, Fleming and Bienvenu, (engineers) submitted a proposal for surveying work, $250 for 2 days work, including topographical and utility detail survey work for library site. The committee voted to authorize spending the money. The survey is to be ready very soon.

There was more discussion of the Sewell and Smith sub-contractors payment complaints.

A lengthy discussion followed on future school sites, and it was voted that surveys on the first three sites, be carried out, and a perimeter survey, a legal description, and a topographical survey be made.

Mr Currier remarked on the previous statement by School Superintendent Harold Shea, that, at the pace the town is growing, more High School facilities would be necessary in about three years.

There followed a discussion of the pros and cons of adding a wing to the existing High School (Currier) or of the possibility of utilizing space over the present High School, using steel beams and piles to support an additional story, the same idea as the construction to be made over the Mass. Turnpike in Boston (Barry and Michelson).

Also discussed was the idea of reinforcing foundations of the High School, to add on another conventional floor of rooms.

The meeting was over at 9:10pm

Only 35 to be accepted
High School work-study program

There are about 150 applicants for the fall Work-Study program of Wilmington High School, but only about 35 are to be accepted, according to Harold Driscoll, submaster of the High School.

The program, tried for the first time last year, permits a pupil to continue school, and have gainful employment at the same time which can be counted as credit for graduation.

Students who wish to participate should not lose time, Driscoll advises, in getting their applications signed and submitted to the High School.

Applicants must have a job, meet the regulations of the school regarding the program, have a signed application from his employer and parents, and submit all to Mr. Driscoll.

The work-study program is designed to encourage youths who would otherwise leave to continue in school, and work for a diploma. Credits are given, and the student is graded, four times a year, by his employer.

MORE TOWN NOTES

resisted tearing down the tree, in spite of the need for the painting of the front of the building. The Town Crier's building is now being enlarged, and extensively renovated, and the Japanese Cherry had to go.

Overlooked

A couple of weeks ago, in writing of Project Head Start, the Town Crier spoke of 'two' kindergartens in Wilmington.

Actually there are three - the newest being the Millbrook Kindergarten, down on Mill Road, in the Garden of Eden.

And a wonderful place it is, too. But that's not all!

Last week, in a picture of Betsy Flight, as a lifeguard at the lake, the Town Crier remarked that she was the first of her sex to be a lifeguard in Wilmington.

Never were we more wrong! There were a number of telephone calls, about Miss Bennett, and Jeanne Ashworth, - and another girl. Every one told us about the three - but no one could remember who the third girl was!

Lil's Adventure

Lil Woodside is the kind of gal that is always having an adventure and is always ready to tell you about it, if you'll stop and listen, in the Wilmington Center Pharmacy.

She has just returned from a trip to PEI, which, as most New Englanders know, is Prince Edward Island, up in the Gulf of St. Lawrence.

PEI is just filled with people named Woodside, and the chances are that anyone you meet by that name came from PEI or his parents or grandparents did. Woodside, in the PEI telephone directory is like Cohen in the New York directory.

Anyway, Lil was buying something, in a store in Charlottetown, and a big bruise of a man sort of squeezed by, to get to the counter girl first.

That's not the kind of treatment that Lil will take, so she squeezed by too, and got her 26 cents on the counter.

The man was telling the counter girl that he was spending his last money on a package of cigarettes, and that he wouldn't have any more until somebody was kindhearted, or he got some money from his next paycheck.

So Lil, in her combination of good nature and sarcasm, gave him a dime.

While this was going on her husband (Mel) was on his way to the local Rotary luncheon.

The man who had received the dime found out who Lil was, and he left.

So when Mel had his luncheon, and, as is the custom in Rotary clubs, had to get up and introduce himself, after the luncheon, the fellow who was across the table (a big bruise) reached across and gave Mel a dime. Much, of course, to Mel's surprise.

The man who returned the dime to Mel, that Lil had given, was the Governor of Prince Edward Island!

GARDENING AND GERMS

'Each time a gardener handles the soil, he or she comes into contact with germs which produce one of the deadliest poisons known to mankind,' said Dr. Gerald Fagan, Public Health Physician.

The germs to which he refers cause tetanus, commonly known as 'lockjaw'.

'To be protected,' said Dr. Fagan 'a person must have an initial series of three inoculations each a month apart, followed by a booster dose within six to twelve months and a reinforcing dose every ten years for adults, every five years for children.'

According to Dr. Fagan about three-fourths of the American people are without protection against tetanus. A vaccine is readily available to prevent this disease, from which half the victims die.

This vaccine, known as a toxoid, is far preferable to the tetanus anti-toxin which must be administered to those not protected by the initial series of toxoid injections and boosters. Made from horse serum, the anti-toxin provides only temporary protection for those injured, against the development of tetanus and may be dangerous to a number of people should they have an allergy or sensitivity to horse serum. This treatment can result in a violent and even fatal reaction, according to Dr. Fagan.

'Tetanus germs are everywhere and are nearly as common as dirt. The chances are you carry some on your skin right now. The lethal seeds of this disease are found everywhere civilization leaves its mark - in the farm soil, city grit and household dirt - but particularly in the garden,' added Dr. Fagan.

GARDENING
(Fr. Pg. 10)

Because garden tools are normally stored in a garage, basement or shed where children often play, it is possible for youngsters to fall victims of tetanus when injured if they are not immunized, too. This disease is not an exclusive hazard of gardeners, but one which reaches out to anyone at any age.

Since gardeners are constantly in direct contact with the soil, it is most important that immunization start before the first seed is planted, the first tree is pruned, the first shrub is shaped.

'Don't wait until it's too late to think about protection. See your family physician and bring your family's immunization up-to-date,' suggests Dr. Fagan. 'By so doing, you bring protection to your home, and immunity to your community.'

Little League

Tournament Play starts Saturday

TOURNAMENT PLAY
STARTS SATURDAY

Wilmington will be the site for at least two games of the 1965 Tournament Play, leading to the International Little League World Championships in Williamsport, Pennsylvania, August 24 - 28.

The Wilmington Tournament Team (All Stars) will host the Burlington Tournament Team Saturday at 2 pm, in the first game of the series. The team that wins that game goes on to play others in the district, while the losing team is -- finished.

But win, lose or draw, for Wilmington, there will still be a second game on the Wilmington field, Monday, again at 2 pm. The Wilmington field, at Rotary Park, has been chosen for the site, even if Wilmington is not a competitor. Whether the game will be on Sunday or on Monday is not certain. Arthur Connolly and Warren Everett are to be coaches for the Wilmington Tournament team.

Other LL Activities

The annual Fathers and Sons game of the Little League is scheduled for August 15th, as is the Mothers-Sons game. The dads play the Tournament Team, and the mothers play a team of Minor League all stars. Game time is 2pm.

Bradford Case of Oakridge Circle and George Szadis of Lloyd Road have been chosen to be the Nominating Committee for the new Board of Directors. Anyone with nominations may call either of the two men at their home. The two men will gladly discuss Little League with interested persons. They are to have a meeting on September 9th, in the American Legion Hall, for the purpose of picking candidates for the Board of Directors.

Charles Nickerson has been named chairman of the Annual Banquet. The banquet is to be held on October 9th.

TOURNAMENT PLAY FOR DISTRICT 13

The Wilmington Little League is one of sixteen teams, in District 13 of the Little League. All sixteen will be playing Saturday, in eight games, all starting at 2 pm.

Wilmington will be playing Burlington, at the same time as Arlington South is playing the Stoneham Nationals. The winners of these two games will play in Wilmington, on Monday, at 5:45 pm.

Wakefield Americans, vs the Woburn Nationals, and the Stoneham Americans vs the Arlington West team will be another four-some, which starts Saturday, and plays again on Monday.

The winners of the meets on Monday, in these two groups, will play on July 28th, in a site still to be determined. Again game time will be at 5:45 pm.

And, from this game, and another played on the same day, involving the winners of eight other teams, the District Championship game will be played, at a site still to be determined, on the 31st of July.
